1. Why this weekend

1. 가

Most of us will never record the story we meant to ask for.

가 ,

Not because we don't care — because the “ right time ” never arrives.

가 . “ ” 가

This weekend you need one call, not a perfect plan.

Their voice. In their own words. Before the stories are gone.

. 가

2. Three first - story prompts

2. 가

Pick one. Stay on that story. English or Korean — whichever feels like home at the table.

Family · 가

EN: Who was the first person who really believed in you — and what did they do?

KR: , ?

Place ·

EN: What's a place from your childhood you can still smell or hear if you close your eyes?

KR: 가 , 가 ?

Lesson · 가

EN: What's advice you wish someone had given you at my age?

KR: , 가가 ?

3. How the guided first call works

3. 가

- 15 – 20 minutes on phone or WhatsApp. They talk. You (or Heirloom) capture.
15 – 20 . (Heirloom) .

- Ask once for permission to record or take notes. Consent first.

- Open soft: you only need one story this weekend for their Memory Book.

가 Memory Book .

- If they wander: finish this story first; save the next one for later.

- Close with thanks. You're saving this for their Memory Book / Keepsake next.
 . Memory Book / Keepsake .

4. What Keepsake is

4. Keepsake

A Memory Book you can hold — their first story, guided questions, PDF + printable.

Memory Book — , 가 , PDF .

Keepsake — $199 one - time (one storyteller).

Keepsake — $199 ().

5. Consent note

5.

Their voice and story stay theirs. They stay in control.

Heirloom does not train on their content.

Ask before you record. Save what they want kept. Leave what they don't.

You already did the hardest part when you decided to ask.
